

If a replacement engine has been fitted, a green tag should be visible down towards the back of the right-hand cylinder head.